

Thomas Moore to George Washington, May 12, 1768,
Letters to Washington and Accompanying Papers.
Published by the Society of the Colonial Dames of America. Edited by Stanislaus Murray Hamilton.

FROM COLONEL THOMAS MOORE.

May 12. 1768

DEAR SIR

I am very sorry to find the method I took to prevent your losing any interest on the money I owe was not agreeable to you but as I am resolved not a farthing shall be lost for your kind indulgence to me I am willing to do any thing in my power you may think right If you think proper to let the Bond lay as it is till next Octr. Court you may then depend on great part of the money if not the whole and at any rate no interest shall be lost but if this way should not be agreeable pray direct me and depend on my doing any thing in my power to comply with your desire — As my money will not be due till the Octr. Court it will not be in my power to pay it sooner & therefore hope you will not run me to the Charge of a Suit, which will not answer any satisfactory end —

I am with my best complements to your Lady & with distinguished regard to your self Dear Sir

Your Obt. hble Set. THOS. MOORE